OUT NEXT SUNDAY.

The Christmas number of the New York Sunday World will be a notable number, crammed as full of good things as a good little boy's stocking on Christmas morning. It will come out next Sunday. There will be many pages in four colors, lots of pages in two and one color, and pictures of all kinds for every one. There are to be so many special features that we couldn't tell you about all of them now. Some of them, however, may be mentioned. Special articles by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy on "Christmas as in Christian Science"; by Rabbi J. Leonard Levy, of Pittsburgh, on "Christmas from the Jewish Standpoint"; "My First Doll," by Mrs. Russell Sage; Christmas stories by O.
